About eLearning Program: -

The E-Learning Program “Entrepreneurship and Startups”, has been formalized in a manner, by which aspiring learners, can get acquainted with the meaning and concepts of what entrepreneurship is, why it is important, what are its types, what a startup venture is and how different it is from entrepreneurship. It provides understanding of who may be an entrepreneur, what are the characters to develop, and what should be the entrepreneurial mindset. It also provides a vivid description of the Indian startup ecosystem, how to generate a new entry opportunity and ultimately how to develop it into a corporate entrepreneurship.

The Program covers the Entrepreneurial process, by highlighting how ideas are created, how opportunities are recognized, and by evaluation of those opportunities how to create a viable business plan, which includes marketing plan, organizing plan and a financial plan. It also gives a road map of how from the planning stage to formally launching a business entity, what are the types of such entities, how the venture will be funded, and once venture starts how to manage, and thereafter how to harvest growth by adopting strategies.
