About eLearning Program: -
Integrated Management System is a single structure for management system utilized by organizations to manage their processes / activities which comply the organization's objectives and satisfy the interested party's requirements.

ISO 22301:2019(Formerly ISO 22301:2012) Business continuity management systems – Requirements, is a management system standard published by International Organization for Standardization that specifies requirements to plan, establish, implement, operate, monitor, review, maintain and continually improve a documented management system to protect against, reduce the likelihood of occurrence, prepare for, respond to, and recover from disruptive incidents when they arise.[

 ISO 27001:2013 (formally known as ISO/IEC 27001:2005) is a specification for an information security management system (ISMS). An ISMS is a framework of policies and procedures that includes all legal, physical and technical controls involved in an organisation's information risk management processes. , ISO 27001:2013 provides a model for establishing, implementing, operating, monitoring, reviewing, maintaining and improving an information security management system.

ISO/IEC 20000-1:2018 is a globally accepted IT service management system standard which is certifiable. It specifies requirements and processes to support management of the IT service lifecycle, including planning, design, transition, delivery and improvement of services. All ISO/IEC 20000-1:2011 accredited certificates shall cease to be valid after 29th September 2021. ISO 20000-1:2018 (Service Management System Requirements) and ISO 20000-10:2018 (Concepts and Vocabulary) were updated to address the evolving needs and challenges in the delivery of IT service management. The updated version of ISO 20000-1:2018 has been restructured into the High-level Structure (HLS) to better align / integrate with other ISO management system standards,

In this working module the documentation, implementation and certification of integrated management system as per ISO-22301:2019, ISO-27001:2013, and ISO-20000-1:2018 standard will be covered.
