

National Productivity Council

New Delhi

ADVERTISEMENT

22/02/21

Sub: Requirement of organisations providing Energy Measurement and Monitoring Technical Assistants along with Energy Management Instruments on project basis-reg

National Productivity Council, New Delhi is a pre-eminent organization working in the areas of energy, environment and industrial engineering. For carrying out its energy audit projects it seeks to take technical assistants on hire from an organization along with their Energy audit instruments on project basis. The technical assistants can be a Diploma or Graduate engineer with proficiency and experience in using Energy Measurement and Monitoring equipment's. Interested organizations are requested send their applications to GH (Energy Management Division) providing details of their qualifications, List of Energy audit instruments with calibration certificate, experience and expectations or charges on per day/per month ( indicate number of working days considered) basis.

Group Head (Energy)