

National Productivity Council

New Delhi

ADVERTISEMENT

22/02/21

Sub: Requirement of Power Plant and Refinery Energy Expert

National Productivity Council, New Delhi is a pre-eminent organization working in the areas of energy, environment and industrial engineering. For carrying out its energy audit projects it seeks experts having sectoral experience in Thermal Power Plants and Refinery on project basis. Individuals having following experience and qualifications can apply to GH (Energy Management Division)

They are requested to provide details of their expectations (Charges/day or month), willingness to work in field (number of days at a stretch).

Group Head (Energy)