

National Productivity Council

New Delhi

ADVERTISEMENT

22/02/21

Sub: Requirement of Steam trap study and Condensate recovery study for a refinery-reg

National Productivity Council, New Delhi is a pre-eminent organization working in the areas of energy, environment and industrial engineering. For carrying a detailed steam trap study and condensate recovery study on project basis.

Interested agencies/organizations are requested to send their expression of interest to Group Head (Energy) for providing details of their instruments available, the instrument specifications and if they are flame proof, per day hiring cost per trap, minimum time required to initiate the study giving notice by email and other conditions if any. Please note that the filed study should be completed before March 2021.

Group Head (Energy)