1. ABOUT NPC

National Productivity Council (NPC) is an autonomous organization under the Department of Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. The present expertise available in NPC has a resource base of professionals from fields such as Economics, Industrial Engineering, Human Resource Management, Energy, Environment, IT, Project Monitoring and Evaluation, Research Studies and Baseline Surveys. In addition, services of external professionals and subject matter specialists are also sought on need basis, depending upon the nature and scope of work. NPC extends services from its headquarter at New Delhi and 12 regional offices across the country manned by more than 100 full time professionals. NPC has professionals from diverse fields to provide Consultancy, Capacity Building and Project Monitoring Unit (PMU) services to various organisations including Central Government Ministries and State Governments.

2. PROGRAMME THEME

Soft skills are personality traits and behaviours. Unlike technical or ‘hard’ skills, soft skills are not about the knowledge you possess but the behaviours you display in different situations. They are characteristics that help a person to perform well in a team and contribute to a positive work environment. It helps the employees to look at their problems in a creative way. The ability to address their own problems will help save time and resources. Taking care of small issues on their own gives the employee a sense of autonomy and aids in productivity for the overall company.

Soft skills training allows employees to work and interact more effectively with others in the workplace. Every organization can put its employees in a position to be successful in their roles by ensuring that they are equipped with the necessary skills, and soft skills are no exception. This training programme is going to delve into various soft skills that are essential for an individual to be more effective and productive.
