2. PROGRAMME THEME

Contract Management defines the processes which assist parties to contract in meeting their respective obligations with respect to service delivery and in turn meeting the project objectives. It involves building a good working relationship between government and the private party that will continue throughout the life of the contract. Given the dynamic nature of business environment, another dimension of contract management is to anticipate future risks/hurdles by managing proactively rather than merely react to situations as they arise. Sound contract management is therefore crucial to the success of any business relationship & partnership.

Public procurement refers to the purchase by governments and state-owned enterprises of goods, services and works. As public procurement accounts for a substantial portion of the taxpayers' money, governments are expected to carry it out efficiently and with high standards of conduct in order to ensure high quality of service delivery and safeguard the public interest. Transparency, integrity, economy, openness, fairness, competition, and accountability are some of the fundamental principles of public procurement and need to be followed throughout the entire procurement process. GeM (Government e-Marketplace) is an online platform for public procurement in India.
