

Virtual webinar on Workplace Safety as per Factories Act 1948

Webinar Title: Workplace Safety as per factories Act 1948

Expert Speaker: Paresh C. Shah

About Webinar: - Workplace occupational Healthy & safety is one major concern of employers & employees. There are set of responsibilities of Employer & employees for safer work place & compliance requirements, guidelines provided in factories Act to protect employees, employer and surroundings. It is most important to learn how to identify and prevent or correct problems associated with general safety & health. This will help to make safe work practices in offices, industry & construction sites.

Webinar Coverage:-The coverage will be understanding of occupational Health safety requirement in Factories act. This will helpful to Managers, Executives, Supervisor of HR, Production, Maintenance & production team.

Speaker Profile: Former Chief Operating Officer of one of fortune 500 MNC. He has over 30 years of experience in operations management, customer services (After market), specialize in business process and organizational transformation, quality, integration, strategy implementation and project management.

Paresh holds a Mechanical Engineering (BE- Mechanical) & MBA (Operations Management) degree. He is Certified Six-sigma Black-belt. He has been trained on Lean Manufacturing at Hino, Japan.

Register to learn :

This webinar will help to learn about basic and health aspects.

- Important aspect of unsafe act
- How to identify the Hazards, risks, health hazards
- Help to build an effective safety culture in the organization

Regards

Praveen Kumar Samantara

Assistant Director

8139999423

NPC Bhubaneshwar Team