

NATIONAL PRODUCTIVITY COUNCIL Presents Webinar on

Delegation Skills

On 28th September 2020 at 11:00 Hrs. to 13:00 Hrs.

Every once in a while one gets an over-whelming feeling of being inundated with work and that one has not been able to do the work matching ones potential. This is the time to unload and offload a major portion of ones work to the team in order to reach the potential. The skill to do so is Delegation and it is as much a science as it is an art.

Webinar Coverage:

This online workshop will help participants understand the skill of delegation, how it works and how to get started. One would also learn when to and when not to; whom to and whom not to delegate in order to maintain efficiency. By the end of the workshop one would be able to create space and time by delegating to reach more fulfilling aspects of one's job.

★ Participants will be provided E-Certificate towards Participation
