About Webinar

Talent is an essential component in our way of life; the underlying variable within humanity that sustains civilizations and society with invention and discovery, that fuels business and investment with innovation and growth, and teases out excellence from individuals who lead, entertain, and inspire.

The modern challenge is how we draw talent from within others and ourselves; moreover, how we manage the talent that we find in our organization.

There are several elements that the Talent Management System (TMS) uses to dramatically accelerate performance from Talent.

The webinar emphasizes on how to build Talent friendly Organisations

Webinar Coverage:

- Understanding the meaning and importance of Talent
- Building Talent friendly organisations
- Reaping the benefits of Talent Management Practices
